2 Purpose of the processing of personal data and the legal basis for the processing

The data of those who are invited to, have registered for and have participated in the FIN-FSA's alumni events and meetings are processed for the management of the events and meetings.

The legal basis for processing the personal data is the need to process data for the controller's performance of tasks in the public interest or consent to manage, among other things, special diets.

3 Categories of data subjects, the personal data processed and information sources

The data subjects are those who are invited to an event and those who have registered for an event.

The personal data processed are

- Name, title or position of the data subject and, if necessary, additional information related to these, organisation
- End date of service, position and department
- Contact information of the data subject (email address, phone number and possible other contact information) and possible communication bans
- Communication with the data subject (e.g. email correspondence, answers to enquiries)
- Photographs and video recordings of the events (participants are informed separately about possible video recording and photography)
- Data concerning invitations to, registrations for and participation in events
- If necessary, special diets

Information about former employees is obtained from the Bank of Finland. The information of data subjects is obtained from the data subjects themselves in connection with registration for events. The FIN-FSA also collects information from public sources such as organisations' websites.

The information of data subjects is not used in automated decision-making.

4 Recipients or categories of recipients of the personal data

The FIN-FSA discloses the personal data of those who have registered for and have participated in events to the Bank of Finland or to another organising party if the event in question is held on the Bank of Finland's premises. If there is catering at the event, data may be disclosed to the organiser of the catering insofar as this is necessary.

Photographs and video recordings may be published on the FIN-FSA's website and in social media channels, provided that consent to publish the photographs or video recordings has been obtained from the persons clearly identifiable from the images. Photographs may also be released to the press for news coverage and non-commercial purposes.

Personal data may be disclosed in possible requests for information insofar as the information is public on the basis of the Act on the Openness of Government Activities or the party requesting the data otherwise has the right to receive the data.

The FIN-FSA has outsourced the processing of personal data to the following service providers, who process personal data on the FIN-FSA's behalf:

- For IT system and application suppliers
- IT consultants
- Communication service providers.

5 Information on the possible transfer of personal data to a third country or an international organisation

Data are not transferred outside the EU or the EEA or to international organisations.

6 Period for which the personal data will be retained, or the criteria used to determine that period

Personal data will be retained indefinitely, unless the data subject requests the data to be erased or, in connection with updating, it is discovered that the person no longer belongs to the target group of alumni events. Event registration information, including special diet information, is stored for a maximum of 4 months after the event is held.

7 General description of technical and organisational security measures

In order to protect the personal data against unauthorised access, disclosure, destruction or other unlawful processing, the personal data are processed in systems that have been protected with appropriate technical data protection solutions, taking the potential risks into consideration. Manual material is located in premises to which unauthorised persons are prevented from accessing. Only those employees who need to process the personal data in order to perform their duties have access to the personal data being processed.

8 Rights of the data subjects

The data subjects have the right:

- to request from the controller access to personal data concerning them and the right to request that such data be corrected or erased or for processing to be restricted.
- insofar as processing of personal data is based on consent, to withdraw consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent prior to its withdrawal, as well as the right to transfer the data from the system to another.
- to lodge a complaint about the processing of personal data with a supervisory authority.

9 Statutory or contractual requirement to provide information and consequences of failure to provide such information

If the data subject does not provide the information necessary to register for an event, the FIN-FSA cannot accept the data subject's registration for the alumni event.
